

Gift Catalog

Christmas 2026

“To assist means being present to the needs of others.”

Pope Leo XIV

President's Message

Merry Christmas! I hope this catalog finds you well and that, as you prepare to celebrate this holy season, you find moments of peace and gratitude.

Christmas is a season of joy, but that does not mean our lives are always joyful or free from challenges. Each of us carries worries, disappointments and struggles, alongside the blessings and moments of happiness that make life meaningful. Perhaps this is part of what makes Christmas so powerful: God did not wait for a perfect world to enter it. He came to us in the midst of ordinary, imperfect human life, bringing hope, love and light.

Perhaps challenges, too, have a purpose. Through difficulty, we can grow in character, discover the generosity of others, and learn to appreciate the people and blessings we might otherwise overlook.

So, this Christmas, I wish you joy—not a life entirely free from challenges, but the grace and strength to meet whatever comes your way. May the birth of Christ remind you that, even in difficult times, we are never without hope.

A Borrowed Faith Awakened

The “most needed” gift has refreshed Isemaylie and Jean Mirlande.

Jean Mirlande struggled to feed her children — including 10-year-old Isemaylie — as a laundress. Innovating, she started a beverage business with a borrowed freezer. The freezer broke and they couldn’t afford repairs; the setback showed in Isemaylie’s health.

Thanks to gift catalog givers, Jean Mirlande bought a freezer and re-start inventory. “I feel truly happy to thank you for this great thing you have done for me,” Isemaylie says. “You have shown me that you are a person who loves others.” Today, the business brings a stable income, and Isemaylie’s health has improved. She dreams of being an engineer.

SPONSORSHIP

Empowering His Success

Sponsorship always means smiles, but with Kecious, it means many more. A Chalice sponsor began supporting him, age 11, through the Serenje site in Zambia. His sponsor helped him pursue his dentistry dream. Kecious persevered after his father’s passing, graduated as a dentist, and will soon devote himself to smiles at a hospital. Create countless smiles as a sponsor today.

A Moooving Gift

In Ukraine, Anna and her family received a gift that keeps on giving — a dairy cow. After her father passed away, Anna's mother tried to raise five children on limited income as a cleaner. When war caused dairy product costs to jump, they became out of reach for many families. So, when gift catalog donors bought Anna's family a cow, they were overjoyed. With better nutrition and extra income from selling leftover dairy products, the family feels blessed.

ANIMALS & FARMING

"For households that depend on agriculture, each goat represents a living asset."

Sr. Sherly, site director,
Mercy Care site, Kenya

Hold the Harvest, Reap the Reward

Families working together in the Mbinga, Tanzania made tremendous progress growing corn, but storage was an obstacle. With no way to keep their harvests safe, they felt forced to sell their corn immediately, when prices are lowest. Thanks to farming gifts through the gift catalog, the Mbinga team gave the farmers proper storage. After their next harvest, they can safely wait for fair market prices and get the profit they deserve for their hard work.

In our Mombasa site, Kenya, through the Gift Catalog, 344 children received medical screenings, treatment for common illnesses, and deworming medication—many for the first time. HOUSEHOLD & LIVELIHOOD

Small Business, Big Love

In Cochabamba, Bolivia, Elva and her husband struggled with the nutritional needs of their three children. But when gift catalog donors gave her a new oven, her heart filled with hope as she filled her neighbourhood with the aroma of freshly baked bread and pastries. With one sniff, neighbours were customers and her business grew.

"Thank you for trusting us in our ability in operating our business; this makes a great inspiration for us to achieve our goals in life."

Mercy Grace, mother and entrepreneur,

"It's helping my family a lot."

Almost 100 students received new school uniforms and shoes which help them feel self-assured and motivated. Your gifts also supported tuition for 19 junior high and high school students, as well as 18 in higher education. The gift of tuition ensures they can stay enrolled and stay focused on success.

"You did not just support my education but you transformed my life and gave me the strength to bring hope and healing to others life too."

Monguli, nursing student,

Bringing Dignity Home

Thanks to everyone who gave hygiene through the gift catalog, the Orissa site gave 17 families the washrooms of their dreams. "As a father," says Emel, "I carry a dream in my heart to build a safe and dignified home for my family. This facility will definitely improve our wellbeing, helping us live a more hygienic and dignified life."

Rice, Laughter, and Newborn Smiles

The Wa site staff in Ghana use Christmas as an opportunity to uplift everyone — of all ages — in the community.

Community members armed with brooms, gloves, garbage bags, and laughter, rolled up their sleeves to restore cleanliness and pride to three villages. Staff brought warmth and hope to 25 families through baskets of rice and soup ingredients. They also brought newborn essentials to both expecting and new parents. They also gave the joy of Christmas parties to all children and parents, books to students, and donations to local health centres and patients.

“We are incredibly grateful for this large-scale act of inclusion,” says Michael, Wa site director. “Your generosity ensured that every sponsored child felt cherished and special, creating lasting, positive memories that they will treasure for a lifetime.”
